After completing the lesson, Students and/or Instructors will be able to:

1. Use traditional conflict resolution techniques to solve problems in health ways
2. Use Dee Ni language to construct simple sentences describing events and feelings
3. Reflect on conflict resolution process

Assessment:

- Students review success/failure of mediation process in a "follow-up" with and adult supervisor
- Language is "optional", use of assessment rubric should reflect that:
 - Effort
 - Collaboration

Activity/Project Description:

- Students learn about the purpose/process of traditional conflict resolution from a visitor/video and/or reading materials
- Students hold a "Mock Trial" in which a conflict scenario is presented and resolved
- Mediators are selected through election process as part of council elections. Younger grades might have more success with an adult in this position to begin with.

- cenarios can be created based on conflicts common to class/grade level
- Adults supervise mediation process as conflict arises. Students in conflict fill out a "My Side of the Story" form using Dee Ni where possible. Students may request mediation, or instructors/parents may "sentence" students. Verdicts could include: Draw, Apology, Restitution, Referring issue to a higher court
- A post mediation reflection should be conducted to evaluate success of the process
- Fifth grade should compare/contrast traditional judicial system of mediation and fines with modern U.S. judicial branch in their studies of US History.
- This would be a good time for all grade levels to review phrases/vocabulary from "Feelings" lesson

Materials/Supplies:

- Information on traditional use/structure of conflict resolution (a video would be great; otherwise printed materials
- "Conflict Scenarios" These are a component of the "2nd Step" program used in SVS in the past. Otherwise,
- A reasonable conflict
